Victor and Steve -- Because of email technical problems, I cannot access the official correspondence control system to print out the control slip for this incoming letter.

However, the due date is July 20, and the incoming letter is below. Please begin your response, and as soon as my email problems are fixed, I will get you the yellow folder with the control slip, etc.

Thanks!
Sandy

hi Sandy- this letter will be assigned to R8 for response, cc: OSWER. Can you please distribute to the Libby team?

Tom- note the document request. We should probably have a conference call to discuss how to respond.
